Borough falls silent for war heroes

HUNDREDS of people turned out last Sunday to commemorate those who have lost their lives in battle.

People gathered at the Cenotaph, on Clifftown Parade, on Sunday, to remember the dead service men and women.

The Mayor of Southend, Councillor Sally Carr, and other dignitaries attended the ceremony to lay wreaths at the base of the Cenotaph.

Revd Canon S Burdett and Rabbi B Bar also led prayers during the ceremony.

PAEDOPHILE JAILED

By Charles Thomson

A SEXUALLY confused teenager was sucked into the 'deep and dark underbelly' of an online paedophile community after using the internet to escape his bullies, a court heard last week.

Defence barrister Allan Compton said 26-year-old Mark Walker, of Southernhay, Leigh, created a 'fantasy world' as a refuge from bullies, who beat him up for being gay.

Cops seized Walker's computer last year and discovered a haul of indecent images of children. Chat logs on the computer showed Walker and others had discussed graphic sexual fantasies about gang raping young children and babies.

His parents wept as extracts were read aloud in court. They were so disturbing that Yellow Advertiser decided against publishing them.

Walker was caught in November 2011 after police received intelligence that he was involved in distributing images of child sex abuse.

His computer was found to contain 1,376 child abuse images, including 91 at level five – the most graphic – and 404 at level four. The computer also contained six child abuse videos.

Skype logs showed Walker had shared images up to and including level five with other people.

Defence barrister Allan Compton said: "If ever there were a case that demonstrated the perils of teenagers exploring the internet and being drawn into the deep and dark underbelly of the internet, this is it.

"There were times in his early teenage years, struggling as he was, that he would resort to being in his room on his computer."

He said Walker, who lived in Rochford when he committed the offences, had initially 'stumbled across' indecent images. He said: "This sparked what started as a curiosity. It became an addiction. This man had been corrupted by what he had seen on the internet.

"He was very much living two existences – the fantasy world inside his bedroom and his life outside.

"When he left that fantasy world in his bedroom he led a productive and normal life."

Mr Compton said Walker had held a job at Homebase for nine years.

He claimed Walker had taken positive steps towards beating his addiction and said a prison sentence would be 'incredibly destructive'.

A pre-sentence report said a jail term would make Walker more likely to re-offend.

However, sentencing guidelines gave the starting point for distributing level five images as two years in prison.

Judge Lodge told Walker: "I cannot accept the contention put forward on your behalf that your offending stopped at your bedroom door because you shared your fantasies with others of a like mind.

JAILED: Mark Walker.

"I cannot avoid an immediate custodial sentence in this case."

Walker shook and his parents sobbed as he was sentenced to 16 months in prison for distributing images, with three concurrent eight-month sentences for possessing and making indecent images.

His mother had to be propped up by relatives as she left the court.

WIN! Passes for the family to Southend Sea-Life Adventure

IF IT'S cold and wet outside and you are looking for something to fascinate the kids and keep them entertained this festive season, then take a trip to Sea-Life Adventure on Southend seafloor.

The South East's premier aquatic attraction with more than 40 displays featuring sea life from all over the world is open from 11am daily, except Christmas Day and Boxing Day.

The highlight of a visit is the Tropical Shark Tank. Holding more than 195 tonnes of water, the massive tank is home to Black Tip Reef sharks and an array of colourful tropical fish, all swimming amongst a striking array of coral. You experience this glimpse of ocean life from the seabed, as you walk through an eight metre long perspex tunnel beneath the tank.

The most creepy and crawly creatures from across the globe are the stars of the Crawl Wall and the Scale Trail. Individual displays of some of the most fearsome and deadly beasts known to man right next to each other including Tarantulas, Scorpions, Praying Mantises, Snakes, Geckos ... and then there is the crocodile - a sight most definitely not for the faint hearted!

Stop by Turtle Bay, explore the Ocean Planet Tank and examine the Sea Nursery close up. Enjoy a wealth of other marine marvels from sharks to starfish, Piranhas and Seahorses to Jungle Frogs. Every day there is a full programme of demonstrations, talks and presentations.

In fact there is such a lot to enjoy and so many different things going on that the perfect Christmas present for the family would be a Sea-Life Adventure Annual Pass. The pass not only allows you to visit as many times as you like over the year, but also includes other benefits including 20 per cent off Gift Shop and Three Shells Cafe purchases, 20 per cent off Birthday Parties, and 20 per cent off their aquarium entry price for anyone joining you.

For more information visit www.sealifeadventure.co.uk

To win one of 10 family annual passes, each admitting two adults and two children, just answer the following question.

Q: How much discount do you get in Sea Life Adventure's Gift Shop and Three Shells Cafe with an annual pass?

A: Five per cent

B: 10 per cent

C: 20 per cent

To enter the competition telephone your answer - A, B or C - to 0901 307 1671 along with your name, address, telephone number and e-mail.

Alternatively text YASEA (space) followed by A, B or C, and your name, full address and e-mail to 63333.

Calls cost 51p from a BT landline. Calls from other networks may vary and from mobiles will cost considerably more. Texts cost 50p plus your standard network rates. If you do not wish to receive details on any other products or services, please text EXIT at the end of your message. Lines close on Thursday, November 22, 2012. Boxing night set to pack a punch

By Paul Giles

A BOXING night being held at Talk nightclub will raise money for the Marie Curie Cancer Trust.

The night will see the International Boxing Alliance (IBA) holding 12 fights with boxers coming from all over the country to take part.

The 'Big Christmas Bash' will also test some of Essex's best fighters.

James Chisholm, who has arranged the night and runs The Locker Room Gym, in Southend, said over the past four years the league has gone from strength to strength.

He said: "We are closing the 2012 season of boxing in style with one of the greatest line ups of boxing talent ever to grace an IBA ring."

"We are really looking forward to this one as I have spent a lot of time matchmaking to unveil the most diverse and impressive generation of league stars, this is one evening of action you can't afford to miss."

The IBA is also on the lookout for people from any background and ability, especially first timers who have always wanted to 'give boxing a go' to take part in their next show in March at The Boatyard restaurant in Leigh.

The Big Christmas Bash will also hold an auction of boxing memorabilia and an aftershow party.

If you are interested in fighting contact The Locker Room on 01702 338402 or alternatively online at www.thelockerroom.biz

Charity golf day success

THE ROTARY Club of Rochford held its Annual Charity Golf Day at Rochford Hundred Golf Club in September.

The event benefited greatly from the support of many local and Essex based businesses, with the principle sponsor being SEO Positive Ltd of Chelmsford. Their support for the day, plus that of the 92 golfers, meant that a record £6,326 was raised for charity.

One of the beneficiaries of the day was Little Havens Hospice who have received a £500 cheque.

Talk on Old Leigh

SOUTHEND Central Museum will be hosting an illustrated talk by Judith Williams.

Judith will be talking about Leigh Old Town and the growth of the upper town around the churches.

The talk will take place on at the museum in Victoria Avenue, Southend, at 7.30pm, on Wednesday, November 21.

Music gig for homeless project

A GIG will be held to raise money for the Homeless Action Resource Project.

It will be held on Friday at Club Riga, in Westcliff, from 7.30pm.

HARP project worker, Nicola Collis along with Kalie Mills, perform as 'Between 2 Minds' and their acoustic set, with Nicola on guitar and Kalie on vocals, features covers from the last few decades which include songs ranging from artists such as Dolly Parton and Rod Stewart, to Adele and Bruno Mars.

Tickets cost £10 on the door or, £7 in advance by calling 07711 757572.

Long serving nurse set for retirement

By Paul Giles

A MEMBER of staff at Southend Hospital is classing herself as 'the oldest nurse in captivity'.

Jean Colclough started training to become a nurse in September 1956, the year of the Suez crisis and when Elvis entered the US chart for the first time with Heartbreak Hotel.

She is believed to be the longest-serving NHS nurse in the country.

Jean, whose student wages were a princely £260 a year, is still going strong, walking miles and miles of corridors every night as a clinical site co-ordinator at the hospital.

Reluctantly, she is retiring at the end of the year only because her pension will be adversely affected if she stays.

At nearly 75 and with twice the stamina and energy of those half her age, Jean was not expected to live past the age of 40.

Just 18 when she qualified and resplendent in her regulation butterfly cap, pale blue dress, white apron and black lace-ups, Jean was desperately shy, so having to deliver a bed bath or a urine bottle to young male orthopaedic patients caused agonies of embarrassment.

She had originally wanted to train as a doctor, but her parents could not afford the university fees.

She said: "I don't think I could have done better than I have done. It's been lovely, every ward I worked on was the best place I had ever been."

In November 1982, Jean was promoted to night sister. She has never calculated her weekly mileage as she repeatedly tours the wards and departments, but after bilateral replacements, claims to have the 'best set of knees in Southend Hospital'.

She said: "My retirement letter was the hardest thing I have ever had to write.

"I was on my own and just sat there and grizzled. I would happily stay on.

"Fifty-six years is a long time. Just stopping is not going to be easy. I would certainly consider coming back on the bank. But first we have to move house."

Friend and colleague, hospital discharge co-ordinator Sandra Steeples, said: "Jean will be so greatly missed, and I wish I could clone her - and bottle her energy."

RETIREMENT: Jean Colclough who will be retiring soon and classes herself as 'the oldest nurse in captivity'.

Police give security warning

DETECTIVES in Southend are reminding the public the importance of double locking UPVC doors following a burglary attempt in Lydford Road, Southend.

The suspect entered through an insecure porch door before forcing open the front door last Thursday at noon.

He was then heard by the occupant and fled empty handed. The homeowner got a fleeting glance of him and describes him as wearing a multicoloured, possibly chequered shirt and a black woolly hat.

Shopkeeper assaulted

POLICE are appealing for information in identifying a man believed responsible for assaulting a shopkeeper in Southend.

The shopkeeper was punched in the face following a verbal altercation at Essex Provisions in Southchurch Road at 11.30pm on Tuesday, October 23.

The suspect is described as white, with dark hair, wearing a blue T-shirt with an image of a trainer on the front.

Anyone with information is asked to contact officers at Southend Police Station on 101.

Nightclub attack

A MAN was left needing hospital treatment after he was attacked outside a nightclub in Southend.

The 19-year-old man from Rayleigh was assaulted at midnight on the morning of Saturday, November 3.

The man lost consciousness and came to in the Warrior Square car park with no recollection of how he got there.

He was taken to Southend Hospital by ambulance and treated for a black eye, severe bruising and a large cut to the head as well as other cuts and bruises.

Anyone with information should call 101.

LEADING THE WAY: Jack Melville with his work on display in the Work of Art gallery.
Picture by Mark Cleveland

Artist's pencil art on display

By Paul Giles

AN ART gallery will be showing a selection of pencil drawings by a man who has worked for Saatchi and Saatchi.

Jack Melville will be putting on a show of his work at the Work of Art Gallery in Hamlet Court Road, Westcliff, which consists of pencil drawings of icons.

The 54-year-old started his working life in a pit up north before he joined the army.

Throughout that time he never let go of his hobby of drawing. After he left the army he decided he would study art at Hartlepool College of Art.

Jack, who now lives in Southend, said he quickly secured a job with Saatchi and Saatchi in a time when technology in the industry did not exist.

He said: "Back then you had to be able to draw."

"Because of that it was very easy for me to visualise the concept of what was wanted."

In his time at the advertising agency he worked on projects for British Airways, Dunlop and drew TV posters.

Pictures on display will include Amy Winehouse, Marilyn Monroe and many more.

Jack said: "I have been drawing since the age of three and use heavy grade pencils because of the tone you can get with them."

The show will continue until the end of the month.

Jack is also hoping to display a postcard project that he is currently working on.

Hospital carries out first implant of heart defibrillator into patient

By Paul Giles

SOUTHEND Hospital has implanted a heart defibrillator in its first patient.

Roy Harrington was completely unaware he had a heart problem until he had a stroke last year.

He had had no symptoms and had no family history.

Roy, 58, made a good recovery from the stroke and it was only in subsequent tests that he discovered he had dilated cardiomyopathy, deterioration of the heart muscle.

The father-of-three of High Road, Benfleet, said he was breathless but put that down to being a bit out of condition.

Now he has just become the first patient to have a heart defibrillator implanted in his chest at Southend Hospital.

The Swiss-made titanium device has been inserted beneath the skin near the collar bone, where it is able to detect any life-threatening change to the heart rhythm. If it does, it can then deliver a shock to make the heart revert to a safe and steady pace.

The procedure, which took about an hour, was performed by Dr Sajjad Mazhar with the help of senior physiologists Nikki Baines and Katy Deane.

Amy Greenhalgh, from the manufacturers Medtronic, said having the implant means that patients are not reliant on being near a telephone or someone trained in first aid if the heart suddenly starts racing.

She said: "The device will automatically kick in to regulate the heart rhythm."

Roy said: "It is a wonderful piece of kit, just about the size of a small box of matches and weighs about the same as a cup of tea.

"I did not think I needed it but the doctors felt I did so I was guided by the experts. It is going to be a life-saving measure.

"There was no pain with the procedure, I just felt a bit of pressure and I would certainly recommend it to anyone who is told they need it."

Hours after having the device inserted, he was able to go home to his wife, Andrea, and three sons.

Suspended sentence for benefits cheat

A WOMAN who fraudulently used her old address to claim nearly £9,000 in benefits has received a suspended prison sentence.

Anika Ricketts, 26, admitted failing to tell Southend Council she had relocated when she appeared before magistrates in the town last month.

Ricketts, of North Road, Westcliff, was sentenced to eight weeks in prison suspended for 12 months.

She was also ordered to complete 100 hours of unpaid work, repay £8,644.52 in benefits she had received but was not entitled to and pay £276.38 towards prosecution costs.

Hospital raise awareness of mini stroke symptoms

By Paul Giles

SOUTHEND Hospital is trying to raise awareness on mini stroke symptoms.

Transient ischaemic attacks (TIA) are frequently the build up to a full-blown stroke so need immediate medical attention.

The symptoms are the same as for stroke (FAST: Facial or Arm weakness and/or slurred Speech) but disappear quite quickly.

As they do go away, they are too often just dismissed as a 'funny turn'.

But, specialist Dr Thaya Loganathan, explained one in eight people who have a TIA and are high risk go on to have a full stroke within a week.

She said: "The risk is highest within 24 hours, so it is extremely important patients seek urgent medical attention to insure prompt treatment as soon as they experience any symptoms."

The strange feelings of weakness, inability to form words properly or sudden loss of vision are caused by a blood clot reducing the blood flow from the heart to the brain. If that clot disperses quickly, the symptoms also disappear.

However Dr Loganathan said it is a warning that a more severe stroke could happen any time.

She said: "Anyone experiencing such symptoms should see their GP immediately, or go along to Southend's A&E department.

"They will be referred urgently to the TIA clinic for immediate scans and tests.

"We have fantastic support from the radiology department, especially the radiographers who ensure patients are scanned without delay. Even an MRI scan can be done on the same day."

Patients found to have narrowing of the carotid artery leading to the brain are also seen within 24 hours by vascular surgeons and urgent treatment arranged.

STROKE WARNINGS: Dr Thaya Loganathan with Derek Iles.

Patient's lucky escape from mini stroke

DEREK Iles knew something was wrong when he went to feed his cat. First, he dropped the bowl and then he was unable to use his left hand properly as he tried to chop up the food.

The 76-year-old retired residential carer, of Brightwell Avenue, Westcliff, phoned a neighbour for help and within a couple of hours he was in a bed in Southend University Hospital, having undergone a series of scans and tests.

They revealed that had had a slight stroke when he arrived at the hospital. But doctors have told him that he is lucky that it was not far more serious.

Derek, who is chairman of Southend Older People's Assembly, admits he had been ignoring some other signs over the previous week or so.

He said: "My eyes kept watering and I had had a fall when I was crossing the road. I was getting my words mixed up.

"I was tired all the time and had had to hold on to a kitchen worktop when I felt dizzy.

"I had also been having pins and needles in my arm, but just thought it was the way I was sitting.

"They said I did the right thing to come straight to hospital as I could have been paralysed if I had gone on to have another stroke."

Derek is now on medication and having intensive physiotherapy and has been told that he should regain full use of his left arm.

Now he wants to warn others not to ignore symptoms which could point to a TIA or mini stroke.

"When the paramedic first arrived, I was feeling a bit better and did not want to come to hospital but he insisted. I am glad he did.

"I would advise anyone to get medical help straight away if they experience any signs.

"I had a lucky escape."

Is your pain normal?

JON HANDLEY-COLLINS, DOCTOR OF CHIROPRACTIC DISCUSSES:

PAIN

Pain is something we all experience at some point, be that stubbing your toe or living with a painful condition every day. One thing is for sure, none of us (apart from masochists) like pain!

However more and more of us are living with muscle and joint pain and are putting it down to being normal for them, or convincing themselves that it's just a part of getting older. Be aware, pain is not normal!

What you have to remember is that pain is the body's way of telling you that something is wrong. A warning signal. It's not necessarily something you have to live with. People tend to live with back pain or neck pain for example, but most of us wouldn't live with toothache for very long before going to the dentist would we?

If you ask yourself "what is causing my pain?" then you can start to ask "can the cause of my pain be helped?". Painkillers can be used to help the symptoms, but they will only ever control the symptoms, not the cause of your pain.

Sometimes painful joints and muscles are caused by a reduction of function in that area that can be helped with Chiropractic care.

As a Chiropractor, many people come to me in pain. To find out whether Chiropractic can help, the symptoms are first narrowed down to find out what's causing them.

This involves a thorough case history, an orthopaedic examination to find out where the symptoms are coming from, a neurological examination to find out if and how the nerves are affected and a Chiropractic examination to find out how your spine is functioning.

A report of findings is then prepared to tell you what has been found and what needs to be done to sort it out, be that Chiropractic care or referral to your GP for a specialist investigation.

At the Optimum Spine Centre, (based at 1212 London Road, Leigh on Sea) for a short time, we are conducting these initial consultations and reports of findings for £10 (usually £55). Give the Centre a call today on 01702 710084.

"I'M IN PAIN"

Can Chiropractic help me?

We are often asked, "What is the best way of finding out whether Chiropractic can help with my problem?"

The answer is with a complete consultation and physical examination.

For a short time we will complete a full consultation, physical examination and report of findings. All for £10.

Your initial visit will include:

- A full case history with your Chiropractor.
- A full physical examination comprising of:
 - Orthopaedic examination.
 - Neurological examination.
 - Chiropractic examination.
- A full confidential report of our findings, explaining to you in detail, exactly what has been found and exactly what needs to be done to address it.

Chiropractic can help with:

- ✓ Low back pain
- ✓ Joint Pain
- ✓ Neck pain
- ✓ Migraines
- ✓ Headaches
- ✓ Shoulder problems
- ✓ Dizziness
- ✓ Sciatica
- ✓ SPORTS MASSAGE

If you are wondering whether your symptoms can be helped by Chiropractic, give the centre a call TODAY for an appointment:

Appeal launched to provide new centre

By Paul Giles

AN APPEAL to raise funds to help provide a mental health information and resource centre based in Southend that will be the first of its kind in the UK was launched last week.

An event to celebrate the launch will be held at the new £600,000 Jubilee Centre at Southchurch Road, Southend, tonight (Wednesday).

The appeal, to help people in South East Essex who are dealing with mental ill-health, was launched by mental health charity Southend Mind which is part of South East and Central Essex Mind.

The project, to open the centre at 112 Southchurch Road, will cost £1.2m in total and will provide mental health services, related activities and a walk-in information centre all under one roof.

Head of fundraising, Barbara Warner, said the charity are very excited about the launch.

She said: "It will raise funds for this much needed and long awaited centre. The accessibility and prominence of, what will be, a 'one stop shop' will help to raise awareness, reduce stigma and increase mental well-being for people across South East Essex."

"We look forward to working in collaboration with a range of other health organisations and thank all our supporters for backing the new appeal."

APPEAL: Marketing assistant Liam Jackson and student social worker Lou Horsley.

Blind woman to take swimming challenge

By Paul Giles

A WOMAN who lost her sight after taking an overdose because she was depressed is swimming five kilometres to raise money for charity.

Lucy Butcher, now 20-years-old, said she had chosen the charity Mind as she once suffered from depression and the charity help people with mental illnesses.

She said: "When I was 15 I was suffering from depression and tried to overdose."

"Through that I lost my sight and had a liver transplant."

"There is the potential for Mind to help people that have been in my position."

Lucy, an ex-Cecil Jones pupil, has been training for the past 13 months at Shoeburyness Swimming Pool for her challenge.

Her trainer, Ed Court, has been helping Lucy alongside swimming instructor Ruth Thompson.

Ed said: "Lucy is doing really well and I think she will do good on the day of her swim."

"I have been trying to give her advice on the right things to eat so she is soaking in the most nutrients she can for power for the swim."

Lucy will be doing her swim at Shoeburyness Swimming Pool on Sunday, December 4.

If you would like to sponsor her you can ask at the information desk at the Leisure Centre for a form.

CHARITY SWIM: Lucy Butcher who will be doing the swim with her trainer Ed Court.

Mayor taken on tour of homeless project

By Paul Giles

THE MAYOR of Southend was taken on a whistle stop tour of the services the Homeless Action Resource Project offer in the borough last week.

In particular the Mayor, Councillor Sally Carr, was interested in the new property the Darnley Hotel, in York Road.

The hotel will offer day and night shelter accommodation when it is up and running at the end of summer next year.

Work to renovate the hotel will start in January next year.

HARP's property development manager, Nicky Houston, was on hand to explain there would be a community room, training rooms, staff offices, medical facilities and further emergency night shelter accommodation.

She said: "We are scheduled to open and commence service provision at this new premises in August 2013.

"However, we still need to raise £400,000 to complete this project that will leave a legacy for Southend's Homeless for many years to come".

The mayor, who is a patron of the charity, said the visit had been enlightening.

She said: "I have discovered so much about this unfortunate social dilemma within our community.

"Learning about HARP's work can only be truly appreciated by witnessing it first hand and discussing the work with their wonderful and dedicated staff. HARP is clearly making

Robbery

DETECTIVES are appealing for witnesses to a robbery in Southend.

The attack took place when a boy and a girl were walking along Pier Hill at 3pm on Saturday, November 3.

As they approached the base of the lift, the two students were approached by three young men who threatened the girl with a knife, before stealing her mobile telephone. The boy was punched after he tried to intervene. They then ran off.

All three assailants are described as white, are aged in their late teens, of skinny build, and are approximately 5ft 10ins tall.

Information to detectives at Southend Police Station on 101.

Bogus caller

POLICE in Southend are warning the public to be wary of a man who has duped an elderly couple out of money.

The man, described as Mediterranean, well dressed and aged about 40 to 50 years old, started a conversation with a man in the street in Leigh on Friday, November 2.

After befriending him, the man was invited into the victim's home. The man then persuaded the couple to buy sample 'designer' jackets from him as he needed money to buy his wife a present. They handed over a three figure sum.

Information to police at Leigh on 101.

Assault

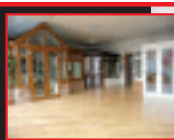

A TEENAGE has been assaulted in the basketball court of Priory Park.

The attack happened at 2pm on Wednesday, October 31 when a 16-year-old boy was punched and kicked by two other boys who emptied one of the victim's bags on the floor.

The boy was taken to Southend Hospital after sustaining a head injury.

Anyone with information should call 101.

Partnership launched for new free repeat prescription service

By Paul Giles

PRIVATE home care company Doris Jones Limited has announced a partnership with local pharmacy chain Chemys, to make the delivery and administration of clients repeat prescription medication much safer.

As a Care Quality Commission (CQC) registered company, Doris Jones carers can administer patients medicine.

However Caroline Southgate, Doris Jones founder, said storage of medicines in people's homes can often be chaotic.

She said: "Different packaging, open packs, loose tablets and out-of-date medicines could lead to confusion in administering medication.

"To address the potential risk of a patient, family member or carer getting it wrong, we have partnered with Chemys to offer a free repeat prescription service, providing a safer medication method for our clients."

On receiving the repeat prescription, Chemys provide patient's medication in clearly labelled and dated individual blister packs.

Although similar blister packs have been around for some time, those provided by SAFER MEDICATION: Ruth Law from Chemys and Roy Blackwell from Doris Jones.

Chemys include a full easy-to-understand description of the medication in each blister, giving clear instructions on how and when it should be taken.

Doris Jones Limited provides private home care services combining conventional care with specialist rehabilitation for people in Southend.

Services range from traditional personal care and home help, to short-term rehabilitation such as that require following surgery or illness, and specialist end-of-life care. For more information contact 01702 472954.

Book airport parking online

HOLIDAY-MAKERS and business travellers using London Southend Airport are now able to pre-book their car parking space at the airport online in advance - and save money.

The new facility on www.southendairport.com has been introduced in response to public demand.

London Southend Airport managing director, Alastair Welch, explained many customers were asking us for an easy and simple way to ensure their vehicles were parked in one of the official, secure airport car parks before arriving here.

In order to make this an even more attractive option for customers, Southend Airport is offering savings of up to 50 per cent on published prices by booking in advance and online.

Mr Welch said: "We are aware of a number of operators offering off-site, often more expensive, remote parking options.

"We strongly urge passengers to compare any rates with our rates and to check the credentials carefully of any such company who operate outside of the rules set out in the airport by-laws."

Other changes made to car parking saw the free period available in the short stay car park reduced from 10 to five minutes, which started this month.

This is to ensure this car park is only being used by people to drop off and pick up airport passengers, for which this free period is intended.

Mr Welch added "We are the only London airport to offer a free period in our Short Stay Car Park for the convenience of our passengers."

SPAR PERFORMERS: Ewan Metcalf from Life Skills and Dave Coldwell from Coldwell Boxing with some of the youngsters at the gym.

Gym gives people a fighting chance

A BOXING gym has opened in Essex to help young people improve their job prospects.

The centre on the Bowlers Croft Industrial Estate, Basildon, will provide government backed courses, in association with Coldwell Boxing and the training agency, Life Skills.

The centre on the Bowlers Croft Industrial Estate will provide government-backed courses, in association with Coldwell Boxing and the training agency, Life Skills.

Coldwell and Life Skills have had success with a similar training scheme in the north of England.

Dave Coldwell said: "We are launching an educational programme that targets young people from disadvantaged backgrounds.

"We've had some great success in Rotherham and hope that can be replicated here."

The scheme works by offering a certificate in boxing, while at the same time teaching students traditional maths, English and science through health, nutrition and sparring education.

"It's learning by stealth," said Life Skills development officer Ewan Metcalf.

"Young people can progress at different levels. This is not a scheme where people get off after 16 weeks and then there's nothing for them.

"Youngsters learn about goal setting, respect and discipline. All these things make them more employable, whether they choose to stay in boxing or go onto something else."

The gym will open later this month for Foundation Learning, before opening to the general public from early next year. The course is open to any young person aged between 16 and 24, who is either unemployed or not in education.

Places are still available for men and women.

Public members are likely to pay as little as £20 per year to join and then £6 per week (or £3 a visit) to use all facilities.

There is no need burden of monthly subscriptions, associated with traditional gyms.

For more information on training, gym membership or Life Skills call 0800 6226493, 01268 272200 or Ewan Metcalf on 07976 964441.

House fire

AN investigation has been launched into a fire in Brighton Avenue, in Southend.

The fire happened at 6am on Sunday.

Crews were called to a fire in a terraced house and used a hose reel to extinguish the fire.

Police and the fire service will now carry out an investigation.

Man receives facial injuries in assault

DETECTIVES are looking for witnesses after a man sustained a serious facial injury in an assault in Rayleigh.

The incident occurred at about 2am on Saturday, October 27, but police did not release details until late last week.

The 32-year-old victim, a local man, had to be treated by paramedics after being attacked outside Linx on High Road.

He had to undergo specialist surgery at Broomfield Hospital.

However, police still have no description of his attacker.

Investigating officer DC Kiri Karlo said: "There had been a verbal argument between a group of people outside the nightclub and very close to where this assault took place. We are appealing for witnesses to the assault and the argument to come forward as well as those who were involved in it."

DC Karlo urged anybody with information about the assault to dial 101 and ask for Southend Police Station.

Heartless thief steals car with child asleep in the back

A THIEF laughed at a woman as he stole her car with a two-year-old boy asleep in the back seat.

A police helicopter was dispatched to locate the Land Rover Freelander, which was stolen from Kents Hill Road North in Benfleet at about 2.20pm last Friday.

The 32-year-old victim left her engine running while she delivered a parcel.

The culprit, described as white, in his early 20s, clean shaven and wearing a black top with a light-blue hood, dumped the car in Barncombe Close with the child still asleep in the back.

Investigating officer, Sergeant Rob Chapman, said: "The suspect laughed at the victim before jumping in the vehicle and driving off. There were various people in the street at the time of the incident.

However, due to the welfare of the child being our primary concern, we were unable to obtain details of all witnesses."

Anyone who witnessed the incident or has information was urged to contact Sergeant Chapman by dialling 101.

Charity fair

THE ROCHFORD District Players will hold a charity fair this Saturday to raise money for the Air Ambulance.

The gift and craft fair will take place between 11am and 3pm at the Women's Institute Hall in Rochford Square.

Entry will cost £3 and will include a hot beverage and cake.

Festive market

THE RAYLEIGH Baptist Church will host a Christmas Market on Saturday to raise funds for a new school in Kenya.

The market will be open at the church on High Road between 11am and 4pm.

Entry will be free and visitors will be able to browse up to 40 stalls.

Hygiene ratings for Christmas

RESIDENTS have been advised to look up restaurant hygiene ratings before booking their Christmas meals.

Restaurants are rated between zero and five for hygiene standards.

The ratings are available at www.food.gov.uk/ratings

Ash trees inspection

ROCHFORD Council is inspecting trees it suspects have succumbed to a disease.

Ash trees are being threatened nationally by a fungus called Chalara

Fraxinea.

Cherry Orchard Jubilee County Park is an area of particular concern.

The disease cannot affect humans.

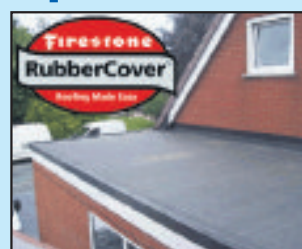

Christmas sign

ROCHFORD Parish Council has applied for planning permission to put up an illuminated metal 'Merry Christmas' sign.

Documents said: "The proposed sign would be sited at the junction of Bradley Way and South Street and would be visible and contribute to the character and appearance of the street scene within the Rochford conservation area."

Rochford District Council planning officers have recommended approval for the plans.

Opinion and readers' letters

Broadcast our meetings when we can afford it

ONE OF the unfortunate things about being elected as a councillor in an age of austerity is that I am forced to be a participant, albeit a reluctant one, in some quite drastic cuts.

Southend-on-Sea Borough Council will be faced with a number of years of cuts, and this year it could be as deep as 10 per cent.

I do not like the cuts and will be doing by best to avoid as many as possible. Despite my wishes that it were otherwise, we will be having cuts. There is a bitter irony in the treasurer of Southend Against The Cuts playing a part in this - I can only assure people that I will be kicking and fighting against as many cuts as I can.

Faced with potentially deep and damaging cuts one thing is certain - new spend, if any are mooted, must be on essential services. I cannot and will not support frivolous expenditure when, for instance, spending on the elderly and those with learning difficulties is under extreme pressure.

This is the reason why I kicked back against the suggestion of a Council tea - how could I swallow a mouthful knowing that my local library may face closure? I am not being alarmist - all sorts of possibilities are being considered. One way or another the budget will have to balance.

I am for opening up our democracy, and in principle support the idea of broadcasting council meetings over the internet. Now is the not the time to consider this, though, not when all sorts of services either face cuts, hikes in prices, or scrapping altogether.

If the council tax goes up will those paying more be grateful for the webcasting of our meetings? When the inevitable P45s go around the Civic Centre next year will the newly workless be equally grateful?

By all means agree in principle to the broadcasting of our meetings, but please defer the implementation until austerity ends.

Councillor Julian Ware-Lane
Labour, Milton

Hitting back at the critics of the NHS

AT A TIME when the fashionable thing to do in some quarters seems to be to criticise the NHS, I wish to record my sincere thanks to all of the staff based at Southend Hospital involved in my recent emergency admission to the Acute Stroke Unit/Benfleet Ward.

From the First Responders and Ambulance Crew right through the admission process via A&E, they displayed the utmost professionalism and kindness and an exemplary standard of patient care.

Following my admission and throughout my stay on Benfleet Ward the care and kindness I received from all of the doctors and nursing and support staff was first class.

Thankfully to all intents and purposes I am now fully recovered but I would say to any critics of the NHS among your readership, believe me it's great to know that they are there to pick up the pieces when you really need them.

Mr Tim Longley
Kendal Way
Leigh on Sea

It seems to be a recurring theme

OH DEAR, how predictable. John Haran reverts to more personal insults branding me bonkers and hysterical as I do not agree with his views, closer inspection based on published evidence on these pages would certainly suggest that he is describing himself and not me!

Most of his letter is the regurgitation of previous letters to these pages that I have responded ed to so not wanting to repeat myself I have nothing to add, but John asks what is there not to understand.

I ask him the same question. He does like brandishing figures around out of context. Ask yourself a few simple questions John, what is the population of the borough as a whole, what is the population of Leigh as a whole, break down the figures, work out how many people who expressed a view, where they live and what the remainder is and what the facts look like, it will show that only a minority have expressed an opinion, and to that end, it is not the overwhelming show of support you seem to be trying to insist it is Laraine Avery lives in Shoeburyness. Funny that she would be in favour of it isn't it? Richard Tucker lives in Benfleet, ditto.

No letters of support from anyone in Leigh then on these pages apart from John Haran again, seems to be a recurring theme doesn't it?

While it is unlikely I will ever agree with anything John Haran has to say I greatly admire his passion and lack of apathy, but one thing I do find intolerable though is ungraciousness in defeat and perhaps this is where a real sense of perspective is called for.

PS: for the record I do not live in Marine Parade....but aspire to.

When will new rules end?

WITH Adventure Island security staff being issued with handcuffs with the power to use them on troublemakers, as a result of this, how long before we see shop assistants being granted the same facility and even taxi drivers who often meet some yobs in their work?

So where will these new rules end?

Do not forget the pedestrians on ice-packed pavements

I WONDER if the council, in their wisdom, ever think of pedestrians, who have to negotiate the ice-packed pavements every year?

We appreciate roads have to be cleared to keep cars running but pavements are just as important.

Having worked in hospitals, in the past, many broken bones are caused in the winter through ice on pavements.

Many of us haven't the comfort of moving around in cars and are forced to inch our way on pack iced pavements, whilst the council are more concerned keeping the traffic moving, they are forgetting the pedestrians.

Couldn't the council whilst salting the roads, salt the pavements as well or will they make the same excuses it cost too much? Think of the cost of broken limbs to mend in hospitals.

I dread the onset of winter, the thought of walking in the road dodging oncoming cars is a danger, not only to me but traffic as well, what else can you do, when you need to get shopping etc. Lets hope the council get their thinking caps on and do what the pedestrians want, instead of wasteful causes, which are many.

Badger argument is now lost

HAVING read last week of the waiver against the culling of the badger, I'm afraid he or she has lost the argument if our food chain is threatened, then it's money well spent.

Perhaps he or she is a vegetarian? and also defends foxes, rats and mice, ridden with diseases and infections, also a nightmare to farmers and householders.

In my experience you can never reason with these people, they are a law unto themselves.

Let's hope we do not have another flood

FURTHER to your article requesting information about the 1953 Canvey flood, to celebrate the 60 year anniversary.

My father told me that the flood occurred while he was doing his national service. He was taken from Chatham Dock Yard by a landing craft which was sent to the area to try and block parts of the coastline where breaches had occurred. Which of course was a waste of time, as 'Mother Nature' cannot be tamed. He said it was a terrible and sad event.

What I find more interesting is that our MP [Rebecca Harris] and Conservative Councillor [Ray] Howard are so keen to celebrate this anniversary. Behind the scenes Castle Point's Conservative Council are doing little to stop the concreting over of Canvey, or the rest of the Green Belt in our borough for that matter.

Whilst making out of course that they are urgently putting together a 'local plan', with all due diligence and communicating with concerned groups within our community.

Which of course, was a tick box exercise! Lets hope and pray, that when Mr King finally gets his 600 houses built at Thorney Bay and Persimmons have desecrated both Dutch Cottage and Jotmans Farm with another 1,500; that we don't end up drowning more people!

But then again, statistically a flood like this only happens once every 1,000 years - which means of course that it could be tomorrow!

Canvey residents shouldn't worry about the single road off of Canvey - just make sure you have a boat or a very strong lilo. I'm sure Rebecca will be fine though, she doesn't live in Canvey or South Benfleet.

Why not extend cemetery instead of setting money aside?

SOUTHEND Council has set aside £1.7 million for a new burial ground as other sites are full.

It would obviously cost considerably more than this, as £1.7m doesn't go far these days.

I would have thought the cheapest option would be to extend Sutton Road Cemetery using the wasteland adjacent to the B&Q link road, unless all this land is earmarked for the proposed football stadium.

Maybe the land was left to widen the road but I can't see why this would ever be necessary at this location.

Police election poem

DEAR Mrs May, in dismay I pray, this ill thought plan is out of play

There's no preparation to inform the nation of who and how relate

For true independent candidate, ex-politicians, 'jobs for the boys'

Can - hand on heart - blot out all before, and true faith implore.

Furthermore with a turn out low, a true election bestow?

Surely to all it must be plain, with proper preparedness start again

With all my strength and all my might - Have a proper Pleb I Cite!

CCTV images have been released of a suspected burglar who has committed a major fashion faux-pas.

The man, whose face is covered with a white mask, is committing the cardinal sin of wearing sock and sandals.

The image was taken from CCTV footage near Nandos in London Road, Southend, after the restaurant was broken in to on Sunday September 9, at about 6am. Damage was caused inside but nothing was stolen.

Police are hoping to identify the person responsible by issuing the image, even though the man's face is covered.

Anyone with information is asked to contact officers at Southend Police Station on 101 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

WANTED: The man in socks is wanted in connection with a burglary in Nandos.

Window Man will help with all your glazing problems

WHEN problems occur with your double glazing and the guarantee is up or the suppliers are nowhere to be found, where do you go?

Fortunately, the Window Man of Basildon has been providing the answers for more than 15 years.

Problems such as misted up sealed glazing units, broken friction stay hinges, sliding door wheel set failure and the squaring up of dropped doors are all in a day's work. As a service engineer and expert installer, with experience in the industry since the 1970s, the Window Man has a thorough knowledge of the industry.

He has also had experience with almost every make and type of double glazing.

If you have a problem, you have absolutely nothing to lose by gaining his professional opinion, with no call-out charges and free estimates. If you are after new PVCU replacement windows and doors, it makes sense to shop around.

But to be extra sure, ask The Window Man to call before you make your final decision and he will be happy to offer sound advice as well as a fair, no-nonsense quote. The Window Man is FENSA registered and you will get a certificate of Building Control Compliance with completed work.

Let Newstyle turn your dream kitchen to reality

IMAGINE an individually designed kitchen or bedroom containing furniture custom built exclusively for you - but at a moderate price.

At Newstyle you can let that dream become a reality, so why not visit the company's showroom at Unit 2, 60 Progress Road, Eastwood, Leigh.

There you will be able to view a range of products, from bedrooms to kitchens through to fitted bathroom furniture and home offices.

Newstyle will make units to any heights, width or depth to accommodate awkward room dimensions, and you won't be charged double for special sizes.

Newstyle is a family-owned and run business, that has been trading locally for 21 years and has built up a huge satisfied clientele due to attention to detail - not just on the manufacture of the product but, equally important, to the standard of installation.

Once you have decided to proceed, delivery and installation is usually made within three to four weeks from placement of order, and the final payment will not be due until completion of installation.

To take advantage of the Newstyle free no obligation survey and quotation service, call the company on 01702 520001 - six days a week.

Attention held hostage in thriller

By Damon Smith

FICTION couldn't be any stranger than the truth in Argo, based on real-life events following the 1979 storming of the US Embassy in Tehran.

Ben Affleck is a deserved front runner for the Best Director statuette at next year's Academy Awards for his work on this gripping thriller that keeps us teetering on the edge of our seats for the entire two hours.

The handsome, California-born leading man has been a solid presence on screen for more than 30 years but it's more recently, behind the camera, that he has truly excelled.

His script for Good Will Hunting, co-written with Matt Damon, won the Oscar and critics have lavished superlatives on his directorial efforts Gone Baby Gone and The Town.

Argo restores Affleck to thriller territory, working from a lean script by Chris Terrio, based on an article written by Joshuah Bearman.

On November 4, 1979, simmering tensions outside the US embassy finally boil over.

Militants break through the barricades and storm the building.

"Don't shoot anybody!" orders one guard, "You don't want to be the person who started a war!"

Iranians capture 52 Americans and hold them hostage but six members of staff - Bob Anders (Tate Donovan), Joe Stafford (Scoot McNairy), Kathy Stafford (Kerry Bishe), Mark Lijek (Christopher Denham), Cora Lijek (Clea DuVall) and Lee Schatz (Rory Cochrane) - manage to escape to the near-by residence of the Canadian ambassador PLAN: Scoot McNairy as Joe Stafford, Ben Affleck as Tony Mendez, Rory Cochrane as Lee Schatz, Christopher Denham as Mark Lijek and Tate Donovan as Bob Anders. Picture by PA Photo/Warner Bros. Pictures.

(Victor Garber). They hide in a basement crawl space while awaiting news from the outside world.

Back on American soil, CIA extractor Tony Mendez (Affleck) concocts an elaborate scheme to rescue the escapees: he will pose as a film producer who has come to Iran to scout for locations for a sci-fi epic called Argo.

The six stranded embassy staff will adopt the guise of his crew and they will leave the country together under false passports.

Bona fide Hollywood producer Lester Siegel (Alan Arkin) and make-up artist John Chambers (John Goodman) throw their weight behind Argo to give the plan credibility.

When Tony arrives on Iranian soil, he soon realises all of his smooth talking and experience might not be enough to save the embassy staff from an Iranian firing squad.

Argo holds our attention hostage in a vice-like grip and refuses to let go.

Taut pacing, slick editing and escalating tension are underpinned by emotionally wrought performances from a sensational ensemble cast.

Arkin and Goodman provide the comic relief as the Hollywood veterans who realise they must spend serious money to create the illusion of a blockbuster in the making. "If I'm doing a fake movie, it's gonna be a fake hit!" growls Lester.

The nail-biting climax succumbs to dramatic licence but by that point we forgive Affleck everything.

Celebrate Christmas in style at Akropolis

CHRISTMAS bookings are now being taken at Akropolis, one of the area's most popular Greek restaurants.

The Westcliff eatery will be the perfect place for pre-Christmas parties and get-togethers this festive season, whether you want to celebrate with friends, family or work colleagues.

The restaurant will also be open over the main Christmas period and anyone interested in booking a table is urged to call for further information and book early to avoid disappointment.

The Akropolis has attracted a growing band of fans since opening its doors 10 years ago and it's hard not to see why. With 25 main dishes, 28 starters, two set meals, and a variety of desserts on the menu, there is always something new to try.

For those with a huge appetite to satisfy, Akropolis serves up a Greek Meze menu every day for £19.95 per person.

The menu, which introduces diners to the Cypriot way of eating, starts with tasty dips and pitta bread, and is followed by cold starters and fish dishes, Cypriot wine sausages, smoked loin of pork and grilled goat's milk cheese. Then it's onto the meats, and even Kleftico and Stifado for those looking for more. To finish you are given a taste of Greek Pastries and an array of fresh fruits.

The Akropolis Meze, available for two or more people, is ideal for parties as the menu is meant to be lingered over.

There is also a Kleftico Feast, including traditional dips and pitta bread, Kleftico, Greek Pastries and a platter of fresh fruits, for £17.95 per person.

The mouth-watering food is not the only Akropolis attraction - the restaurant also produces a good line in live music on most days through the week.

The restaurant can comfortably seat up to 60 people and has a well-stocked, fully licensed bar.

Staff can cater for any occasion whether it's a quiet meal for two or a birthday celebration.

With its experienced chefs and friendly, helpful staff, Akropolis offers a top quality, value-for-money evening out.

Akropolis, which can also satisfy any special dietary needs and offer children-friendly dishes, is open seven days a week, from 5pm to midnight from Monday to Thursday, from 5pm to 1am on Friday and Saturday, and from noon to midnight on Sunday.

The Akropolis is located at 120 Station Road, Westcliff, and ample parking is available just 50 yards away, by the Cliffs Pavilion.

Get in the festive spirit at Regency Spice

ONE OF the largest restaurants in Essex is the perfect choice this Christmas thanks to live entertainment evenings and Tribute Nights.

Regency Spice Restaurant, Lounge & Diner, in Back Lane, Rochford, is now taking bookings for its Live Entertainment Evenings, which will be taking place every evening from November 26 to New Years Eve and include a Party Menu for just £11.95.

Tribute evenings include Lady Gaga on November 30; Abba

Unique Girls on December 6; Motown Gold on December 13; and Michael Jackson on December 20, while Festive Cabaret Nights include entertainment from Claire Capon on December 1; Alex on December 7; Kat Price on December 8; Jade Tibbs on December 14; Lydia Lucy on December 15; Sarah Dee on December 21; Eloise Gray on December 22; and Claire Capon on New Year's Eve.

As well as the perfect place for pre-Christmas parties, the restaurant will also be open on Boxing Day when diners can enjoy either a buffet for just £11.95 per person, and £6.95 for children, from mid-day to midnight, or a set meal for £12.95, or dishes from the a la carte menu.

Regency Spice has proved popular since opening more than two years ago thanks to its exquisite food that looks sensational and tastes divine.

Its vast menu includes a range of dishes from chef's recommendations to Regency specialities, as well as tandoori specialities, balti dishes, Nepalese and Bangladeshi specialities, Thali and Kurzi specials, Persian, chicken, meat, fresh fish and shellfish dishes, as well as Thai specialities, vegetarian options and Regency Combination Platters for two or four people.

These are complemented by a wide range of starters, rice dishes, nan breads, sundries and pickles, and desserts, as well as an extensive drinks list including a wide range of beers and wine.

Its five-course Midweek Special (served Monday to Thursday), includes any starter and main dish, rice or nan bread, a side dish, and tea or coffee for just £12.95; its Business Lunch, served from noon to 2.30pm on weekdays, offers a choice of dishes for just £8.95 per person; while its Sunday Buffet, served from noon to 11.30pm, allows you to eat as much as they like from a large selection of delicious dishes for £7.95 per person, or £3.95 for under 10s.

The restaurant's owner, Tony, who has been in the catering business for more than 40 years, prides himself on his restaurant, which is a wonderful place to celebrate a range of special occasions.

It has ample space for large parties thanks to its separate function room, which is complete with dance floor, sounds, lights and smoke, as well as karaoke.

CHARITY EVENTS

The restaurant, which has full disabled access, can also host charity nights for which it will donate 50 per cent to the charity of your choice.

Regency Spice, which has a full takeaway service including free delivery, is open from noon to 2.30pm and from 5.30pm to midnight, from Monday to Saturday, and from noon to midnight on Sundays.

To make a reservation or for further information about Regency Spice, call 01702 530422 or 01702 531324 or visit www.regencyspice.co.uk

As well as delicious meal and stylish entertainment, those boarding Marco Polo at the London Cruise Terminal, Tilbury, can also get the opportunity to sample the cabins and facilities available.

Lunch costs £49 per person and dinner £79 per person and both include a four-course meal, welcome cocktails and wine with the meal. Dinner, show and overnight stays start from £89.

Cruise & Maritime Voyages has teamed up with Yellow Advertiser to offer two people the chance to win a Festive Welcome Aboard Marco Polo evening and overnight event - now upgraded to stay in a Junior Suite.

The prize - which is worth more than £260 and be taken on Wednesday, December 19 - will include:

- ◆ A cocktail reception.
- ◆ A tour of the ship's facilities.
- ◆ A four-course dinner with wine.
- ◆ An evening show from the Marco Polo team.
- ◆ Late cabaret and disco in Scott's bar.
- ◆ Overnight stay in a Junior Suite.
- ◆ Continental breakfast the following morning served in the Waldorf Restaurant.
- ◆ Car parking at the Port.

For your chance of winning, answer the following question: Who was Marco Polo?

A) A merchant traveller?

B) An Italian footballer?
C) The inventor of mints?

To enter, call 0905 053 3200 and leave your answer, along with your name, address and contact telephone number. Alternatively text CRUISE and then your answer - A, B or C - along with your name and address to 63333.

Calls cost 51p per minute from a BT landline. Calls from other networks will vary and from mobiles will cost considerably more. Texts cost 50p plus your standard network rate.

Entries must be received by midnight on Wednesday, November 21, 2012. Entries received after that time will not be counted but you may still be charged.

If you do not wish to receive details of other products or services, please text or state EXIT at the end of your message.

You can also enter via post. Send your answer, along with your name, address and telephone number, to Welcome Aboard Marco Polo competition, c/o Yellow Advertiser, Acorn House, Great Oaks, Basildon, Essex, SS14 1AH.

Please write the word 'EXIT' on your entry if you do not wish your details to be passed on to Cruise & Maritime Voyages to use for marketing purposes.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

- Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968 and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.
- "Classified" Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed "Trade Advertisers", and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.
- To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disorders) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as "trade", "dealer", "agent", "wholesaler", "(T)" etc. in the advertisement.
- The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:
 - (a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
 - (b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
 - (c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.
- The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.
- Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.
- The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.
- Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents must therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.
- All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.
- All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.
- Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.
- The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.
- Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.
- All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.
 - (1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.
 - (2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.
- Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect of an advertisement should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for settling the advertiser of this liability.
- All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.
- All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.
- The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.
- The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Box Numbers
Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies. Box numbers alone are not available for use in "Trade" advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.

Holiday & Travel Category
All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.

Data Protection
The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.

Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Tindle Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.

Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

COUNTRYSIDE ESTATES SHORTLISTED FOR 2012 BEST AGENT IN EAST ANGLIA & ESSEX REGION AWARD

Local independent estate agent COUNTRYSIDE ESTATES from RAYLEIGH & BENFLEET are pleased to announce that the company has been shortlisted by Relocation Agent Network, a national network of independent estate agents, comprising of 16 regions, for the 2012 Best Agent East Anglia & Essex Region Award.

The winner will be announced at the Awards Dinner of the 19th Annual Relocation Agent Network Conference. Being held at the Park Plaza Riverbank Hotel, London on Friday 16 November, the glamorous awards ceremony will be hosted by BAFTA-winning impressionist and comedian, Rory Bremner.

Relocation Agent Network's 2012 Best Agent East Anglia & Essex Region Award is an annual prize for the agent that has consistently made the best overall contribution to the Network throughout the year and offers those shortlisted the chance to become the Network's 'Best Network Agent in the East Anglia & Essex Region'. To reach this stage of the award programme, agents must demonstrate great customer service, independent business initiatives, local market share and a commitment to the Relocation Agent Network principles.

Ian Law FNAEA, Director from Countryside Estates said, "We are delighted to be shortlisted, especially as it recognises the hard work and combined effort, commitment and enthusiasm of our entire team. We look forward to attending this year's Network Awards Dinner, to celebrate the year's successes with our fellow members from across the country."

This year's Conference will officially launch Relocation Agent Network, formerly known as Home Sale Network. The network of independent estate agents changed its name to reflect the scope of services that each member offers their customers. No longer just an organisation selling homes, network members are Relocation Agent specialists in each of their local areas.

Richard Tucker, Relocation Agent Network's Managing Director commented, "All members are encouraged to work together to promote the Network as a whole as well as their individual companies. As a network of independent estate agents, made up of 16 regions across England, Scotland and Wales, our regional award recognises the agent that has most successfully demonstrated outstanding independent business initiatives and embraced the Network principles."

For further information, please contact IAN LAW, COUNTRYSIDE ESTATES on 01268 741164 or email ian@countrysideestates.co.uk

ASK THE AGENT ALAN KIRKMAN

ALAN KIRKMAN is Director of Essex TEAM - part of the UK's largest branded network of independent estate agents, with 50 computer-linked offices across the county and 500 more nationwide. Managing Director of Tudor Estates in Southend, Alan has been an Estate Agent for over 25 years.

Q. I have just had my house valued, but I think it is worth more than the agent is suggesting. Is there anything wrong with testing the waters by going to market at a higher price?

A. The first thing that should be said is that your home is not necessarily worth what you think it is. The truth is, any and every property is worth precisely what a serious buyer is actually prepared to pay for it. That's why pricing is the most difficult part of the whole selling process to get right.

Now, let's face it, we all want to get the best possible price for our homes, so it's always tempting to err on the optimistic side. After all, years ago, it wasn't unknown for homes to sell for substantially more than the original valuation. However, those days are long gone, and the fact is that going to market at an inflated price is not a good idea at all - particularly now, when buyers are not only pretty thin on the ground but also more than usually price conscious.

But surely, I hear you ask, isn't it still worth taking a punt, just in case there's someone out there who's prepared to pay a bit over the odds for his or her dream home? After all, you can always lower your asking price later on, can't you?

I'm afraid the answer is No. Indeed, by doing so, you could actually be spoiling your best chance of getting a sale - and that's certainly not something you want to risk doing in the current climate. Why? Because statistics show that properties invariably attract the most viewings during their first few weeks on the market. That's also generally the time when the best offers are made. Thereafter, buyer interest declines dramatically. Even when prices are later reduced, it can be difficult to persuade buyers to reconsider a property they have already rejected.

However, there is one alternative you might like to consider. Ask your agent about marketing your home on the basis of "offers in excess of..." This is a bit like setting a reserve price at auction, and if pitched at the right level, it can often generate extra buyer interest. Who knows, you could even end up with a very pleasant surprise!

Scrap Cars

End of the road for your vehicle?

Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF).

Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle. That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.

What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a DVLA approved Certificate of Destruction (CoD). A CoD proves that the ATF has told DVLA your vehicle has been scrapped and so is no longer your responsibility. www.direct.gov.uk/motoring motoring news

Finding the perfect first car

by Andy Enright

FOR MANY of us, our first car was a banger and the buying criteria were that it was cheap, it had tax and MoT, it was halfway insurable and it looked as if it would get you home without chugging its coolant onto the hard shoulder. The combination of the scrappage scheme and an increasing focus on safety has meant that dirt cheap cars are no longer the preferred option for new drivers. What's more, a modern car is now so efficient that an old clunker often makes no financial sense purely in terms of fuel consumption. Here's where I'd be looking if I was shopping for a vehicle for a learner driver.

5 Vauxhall Corsa

This is the vehicle chosen by more driving schools than any other, so thousands of driving instructors surely can't be wrong. With a solid feel, low cost of body parts in the case of a minor scrape, a relatively high seating position and low insurance, starting at Group 1 for the Expression 1.0 EcoFLEX, the Corsa makes all kinds of sense.

4 Ford Ka

Around £1,500 cheaper than the Corsa is Ford's Ka. At 69bhp, its 1.2-litre engine offers a little more pep than the heavyweight Corsa's 1.0-litre unit and this will be the choice for the keener driver who is looking for something that offers some entertainment behind the wheel. Its combined economy figure of 55.4mpg is typical for the class. Fun, practical and at Group 2, easily insurable, the Ka is an appealing option.

3 Chevrolet Spark

The Spark might not be too familiar with British buyers but it ticks all the boxes for a new driver. Powered by a 1.0-litre 68bhp engine and falling into insurance group 1, the Spark is good looking and, with its micro-MPV silhouette, the most practical of all our contenders here if you're looking to put people in the back seats.

2 Smart Fortwo

The Smart Fortwo is the easiest of all our top five to drive. With a 71bhp engine, the Pulse model with micro hybrid drive is the best bet. It falls into insurance group 3 so may well be a little pricier to cover than some rivals but many will see that as a fair trade in return for the most distinctive style statement of all the cars here. If you're at all shaky about parking, the Smart is the car to go for.

1 Toyota Aygo / Citroen C1 / Peugeot 107

At the top of our selection is not one car but three. They're all spawned from the same vehicle, so it would be invidious to choose one over the other and much will depend on the proximity of a dealer or what kind of deal you can strike. Taking the Toyota as an example, the Aygo 1.0 typically retails at around £8,500 and features a 67bhp three-cylinder engine. It's effortless to drive, easy to see out of, features group 1 insurance and 62.8mpg combined fuel consumption, making it a superb choice for a new driver.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.

2. 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.

To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', '(T)' etc. in the advertisement.

3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:

- Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
- Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
- Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.

4. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.

5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.

6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.

7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.

8. All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.

9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.

10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.

11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.

12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.

13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.

(1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.

(2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.

14. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect for an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.

15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.

16. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.

17. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.

18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Box Numbers

Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies.

Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.

Holiday & Travel Category

All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.

Data Protection

The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.

Blues unable to find a way past Valiants stopper Neal

Southend United

PORT Vale keeper Chris Neal earned the plaudits for thwarting Southend United on Saturday in a goalless draw at Roots Hall.

Neal made a string of saves to keep high-flying Vale in the League Two fixture, although Blues boss Paul Sturrock was pleased with his side's overall performance.

He said: "Their goalkeeper had one of those days and must have made four or five good saves.

"Everything he did came off and we just couldn't find a way past him which was disappointing because I was pleased with our overall display.

"Our final shot or ball in to the box could maybe have been a bit better and brought us greater reward but Port Vale are a good side and we more than matched them. That's the most positive thing to take out of the game and I think we're starting to look a far stronger side now."

Vale could have taken an early lead but Ryan Cresswell blocked Louis Dodds' goalbound shot.

Blues responded with Britt Assombalonga testing Neal with a 20 yard shot, however Vale did have the ball in the net but Ashley Vincent was adjudged to have used a hand.

Gavin Tomlin, who scored in Blues' win over Bristol Rovers midweek, came close on two occasions, forcing Neal to save his volley while minutes later, his surging run ended with his shot hitting the post.

rescue, saving from Ben Williamson when he was clear on goal while Tomlin once again hit the post from a narrow angle which left Neal beaten.

In an action-packed first half, the battle between Tomlin and Neal was coming out in the latter's favour, who tipped wide his curling shot.

The second half saw both sides cancel each other out although Assombalonga nearly put Southend ahead after good play from Michael Timlin put him through. However Neal was equal to the task, diverting his shot wide.

Vale had late chances to win it with Vincent firing straight at Smith while Mark Phillips blocked Tom Pope's effort as the end-to-end affair finished goalless.

Essex settle on girls school squads

LINE-UP: Last year's Under 14s girls representative squad.

Grass roots football

ESSEX County FA have selected their under 14s and 16s girls representative squads following trials held Shenfield School in Brentwood.

Females in school years eight to 11 were given the chance to earn a place in the two age groups with the aim of replicating last year's successful teams.

In 2011/12, the Under 14s won the National Inter-County Cup at Norwich City

FC's Carrow Road, while the Under 16s were narrowly beaten 1-0 in the final of the South-East English Schools FA competition.

Emma Burden, joint manager of the Under 14s, said: "We saw some really talented individuals during the course of the trial process which bodes well for girls football in Essex."

The first fixture for both squads is at home on Saturday against Hertfordshire at Chigwell School, kick-off at 3pm.

Billericay earn first round spot in FA Trophy

Non League Football

BILLERICAY Town made the first round of the FA Carlsberg Trophy on Saturday, beating Enfield Town 3-2.

It was all going to plan for the Ryman Premier side who went into a 3-0 lead with goals from Rob Swaine, Glenn Poole and Jay May.

However the Ryman North side made sure it was a nervous finish for the Blues with goals from Tyler Campbell and Adam Wallace.

Chelmsford City and Dover Athletic were due to play a replay last night (Tuesday) after drawing 1-1 at Melbourne Stadium.

The visitors took the lead through ex-Clarets winger Ricky Modeste midway through the first half, but City defender Kenny Clark equalised on 67 minutes to level the tie.

Canvey Island and Chesham were also in replay action after drawing 1-1.

On-loan striker Louis Dennis put Gulls ahead on six minutes but Chesham equalised just after the half-hour mark through Dave Fotheringham. Darren Blewitt's 89th minute equaliser made sure Brentwood Town earned a replay at home to Kingstonian after drawing 2-2 on Saturday.

All goals came in the second half as K's took the lead through Craig Mullen (51) which was cancelled out by Alex Read (57).

K's Tom Hutchinson (61) restored their lead before Blewitt's late goal.

Thurrock went out 2-0 at home to Conference North leaders Brackley Town. Marvin Walker put Town ahead before half-time and Fleet's task was made more difficult when Matt Turpin was red-carded late on. Gary Mulligan settled the tie with Brackley's second on 84 minutes.

AFC Hornchurch suffered a 3-2 home defeat at the hands of Bishop's Stortford. Ricky Sappleton headed Stortford in front on three minutes but the Urchins levelled on 23 minutes through Frankie Curley.

Sappleton (27) grabbed his second through the penalty spot but again Hornchurch levelled soon after the break thanks to Leon McKenzie (48). However, the hosts suffered late heartbreak as Ali Abdullahi scored in stoppage time.

In Ryman League Premier Concord Rangers

found their scoring boots, winning 6-3 over Carshalton. Harry Elmes' penalty put them ahead but they were trailing by 20 minutes as Nathaniel Pinney and Ola Sogbanmu scored for Carshalton.

Tony Stokes and Jerome Walker put Concord ahead in the 27th minute with Stokes, Elmes and Danny Spendlove adding further goals. Sol Pincock scored Carshalton's third late on.

Maldon & Tiptree continue to lead Ryman North with a 4-0 victory over Wroxham.

Billy Sendall, James Robinson and a double from Jamie Guy kept them at the top.

Heybridge Swifts moved up to second with a 5-0 win at bottom club Ware, who finished the match with nine men. Michael Cheek, Ben Newson, Solomon Ofori, Luke Callander and Tom Holdstock scored before Charlie Moxon and Jamie Gillet were given their marching orders.

Lowly Redbridge lost 6-1 at Sudbury. Lee Boylan, Dave Cowley and Rhys Darg made it 3-0 after 15 minutes. Peter Maina netted the fourth on 24 minutes with Boylan grabbing his second.

Jacob Cleaver scored Motormen's solitary goal before Maina completed the rout.

Rugby Union

Narrow loss for Barking

BARKING came close to claiming their first victory in National Two South on Saturday, going down 33-40 at home to Clifton.

Tries from Stephen Hihetah, James Fouracre and Michael Anderson (2), plus three penalties and two conversions from Craig Rafford, kept bottom side Barking in the hunt.

However, Clifton had enough in hand to take the win with five tries, a drop goal and three conversions and two penalties.

Southend's relegation battle continued with a 51-14 defeat at Canterbury.

Billy Driver and Jamie Douglas went over the line for Southend, with Liam Macgeachy and Bradley Burr scoring conversions.

Canterbury's full-back Martyn Beaumont scored four tries, with Ricky Mackintosh, Alex Veale, Kwaku Asiedu and Ruairi McLeod adding to the total.

In the second round of the London & South East Intermediate Cup, Chelmsford were awarded the win over Lowestoft & Yarmouth to progress.

Canvey Island's progress in the London & South East Senior Vase was ended in the second round, losing 17-12 at Cantabrigian.

South Woodham Ferrers also went out, losing 22-32 to Old Priorians.

Billericay went through to the London & South East Junior Vase third round after winning 18-27 at Ipswich Y.M.

Basketball

Fire on form

MOUNTUNE'S Brentwood Fire Under-15s enjoyed a 56-96 victory at Milton Keynes Lions at the weekend.

Fire led by 10 at the end of the first quarter, despite a slow start, and the gap remained the same in the second quarter as the half ended 34-44.

As the second half began, Fire turned up their defence, causing many steals and interceptions with Josh Stannard leading the way with eight quick points.

The Lions managed only six points in the third quarter but continued to lead the way to take the win. Stannard contributed with 28, while Patrick King scored 16 points and voted MVP by his team-mates.

Witham Town lost 3-2 at home to Potters Bar, who go third. Tom Devaux gave Town a half-time lead but Scholars went in front after the restart through Josh Urquhart and James Gershfield.

Liam Coles (72) made it 3-1 with Rob Whitnell giving Witham late hope with a penalty.

Aveley are fourth after beating Soham Town Rangers 4-1. Rashid Kamara's opener for Millers was cancelled out by Rob Mason, however Danny Hopkins restored Aveley's lead, Jordan Cox made it 3-1 before Hopkins grabbed his second.

Grays dropped down from second to fifth following their 1-1 draw at Waltham Abbey.

James Peagram (62) put the hosts ahead but Jared Small (80) replied for Grays.

Tilbury remain in the play-off hunt with a 1-0 win at Ilford, Jack Carlile scoring on 24 minutes. Waltham Forest recorded a 4-2 victory at Chatham. Arian Retkoceri, Adrian Clifton and Manu Dagher put Forest in control.

Kevin Watson (75) scored with a penalty for Chats but Manny Sackey made it 4-1, also from the spot, while Jack Jeffery netted a stoppage time consolation.

So what's it all about?

rapidinchloss
CLINIC

Our non-surgical Ultrasonic Liposuction makes losing inches from areas of your body such as your belly, hips, arms, legs and back easy! Those stubborn fatty areas of your body you would like to change will become flatter and firmer, in as few as 12 sessions of completely painless Ultrasonic Liposuction. You will be massaged, twice a week with ultrasound by our qualified, experienced consultants, ensuring you are looking and feeling fabulous!

We use Ultrasound technology similar to the kind used to carry out baby scans in hospitals, we even use the same gel. During the painless therapy all you will feel is a nice, warm sensation. This warm sensation is the fat turning to liquid and beginning to drain from your body.

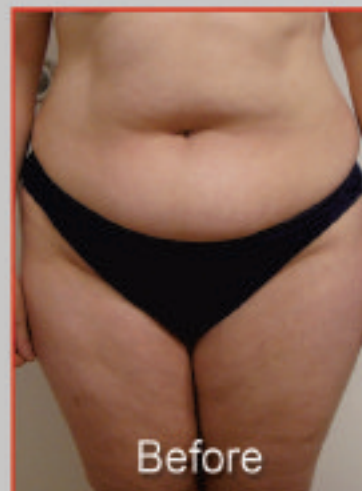

As the Ultrasound passes through the fat cells inside your body it causes them to vibrate against each other, this causes the fat inside to change from a semi-solid state and to become a liquid. Once liquefied, the fat will begin to drain from the cell. The fat then passes through the lymph node system and exits the body through the digestive system in the normal manner. The fat will continue to drain from the body for the next 72 hours. To maximise lymph drainage and achieve the best results we recommend increasing activity levels to increase blood circulation.

Your consultant will chart your success and let you know exactly how many inches you have lost since your last session by measuring your target area before each treatment. We expect clients will need somewhere between 8 – 12 sessions per area to achieve their goals. You should allow 30 minutes per appointment and 3 days should be allowed between treatments.

THE rapidinchloss CLINIC

One of our success stories...

Who: Leslie Carey, 39

Where: The Rapid Inch Loss Clinic Nuneaton

When: 6 Weeks, June 2011

What Happened: Leslie had Ultrasonic Liposuction on her stomach and inner thigh but only lost $\frac{3}{4}$ inch after 1st visit. She then lost 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches after her 2nd visit, before losing 16 inches in total over the course of her therapy.

How: We focussed Ultrasonic Liposuction on Leslie's inner thigh and stomach once a week (1 session on each area) for 6 weeks. After her 1st session Leslie ate take away food on 4 of the evenings, as well as drinking several pints of beer most nights. This resulted in slow progress. However, after only losing $\frac{3}{4}$ inch in week 1, Leslie decided to drink a little more moderately, ate more balanced meals and as a result she then lost 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches between her 2nd & 3rd treatments. Leslie then resolved to adjust her lifestyle, she started eating & drinking in moderation, while making an effort to be more active generally. Leslie went on to lose 16 inches in total over her course which took in 12 sessions each on her stomach & inner thighs.

Why was Ultrasonic Liposuction Needed: Leslie has a demanding job as a director of an engineering firm, this lead to Leslie having a poor diet of take away food & beer, with little activity in her daily life due to a lack of time. Leslie arrived for her 1st session as a size 16, standing at 5' 6" tall

Where are they now: After achieving her target size and shape Leslie had lost 16 inches from her stomach and inner thigh. After completing her course and armed with her improved lifestyle and body shape Leslie felt inspired to take up Exercise! She began walking 3 evenings a week and therefore needed no more sessions to maintain her new size and shape!

The science behind losing Inches & feeling great!

Non-Surgical Ultrasonic Liposuction from The Rapid Inch Loss Clinic makes losing inches easy, especially from stubborn fatty areas like your belly, hips, arms and legs. Better still, it's fast, 100% pain free and can allow you to reach your ideal size in as few as 12 sessions.

Good vibrations

The treatment works using ultrasonic technology similar to that used in ultrasound scanning machines. The frequency of the sound wave targets fat cells, causing them to turn into a liquefied state. This liquid fat then drains away via the body's lymphatic system over the next 72 hours leaving treated areas with a flatter and firmer appearance.

The difference between The Rapid Inch Loss Clinic's Non-Surgical Ultrasonic Liposuction and surgical ultrasonic liposuction is we allow the body to naturally filter the liquid fat instead of making incisions in the patient and using a tool to suck the fat out which can cause pain, bruising and scars.

100% pain free

Our treatments are 100% pain free – in fact you will only feel a pleasant warming sensation as the ultrasound gets to work on your unwanted fat cells.
